

Hampton 101 – A Citizen Crash Course to Get to Know Your City

Date	Session
September 13	Session 1: The Hampton Way – Our City Government & Citizen Engagement City Manager, Mary Bunting and Terry O’Neill, Director of Community Development explain the guiding principles and vision of Hampton City Government.
September 20	Session 2: Celebrating Diversity John Johnson, Director of the City’s Unity Commission explores prospective and lenses of our community and facilitates an exhilarating dialogue with class participants.
September 27	Session 3: The Intricacies of Creating a Green Hampton Public Works Director, Tony Reyes, will lead the discussion about the infrastructure of Hampton and how Trash, Roads and Environmental Management work together to create a sustainable GREEN City.
October 4	Session 4: A Safe City is a Happy City Meet the men and women who protect our City and how learn how Hampton’s Fire and Police Divisions work together to make Hampton one of the safest cities in our region.
October 11	Session 5: Neighborhoods, Places we Proudly Call Home Hampton’s neighborhoods are the Heart of Hampton and serve as a majority of our tax revenue. Learn all the ways in which Hampton works with citizens, allocates resources, and coordinates the many facets of healthy neighborhoods.
October 18	Session 6: Hampton Youth, Shaping Hampton and the World The Superintendent of Schools Linda Shifflett hosts this session along with all of the City divisions dedicated to the education and leadership development of Hampton’s youth.
October 20 (Saturday)	Session 7: Hampton ROCKS! Wrapping up the College is this captivating tour that leads you through Hampton in a way you have never seen before covering history, recreation, tourism and a glimpse of things to come.

For more information call 311. (727-8311 from cell)