

Hampton City Government:

- FY13 City Budget Education, Outreach and Polling Opportunities <http://hampton.gov/ivalue/>
(no registration required)
 - o Online Poll (through March 31)
 - o Online Chats
 - o Polling Events
 - o Call 311 to offer comments

- Hampton 101 – A Citizen Crash Course to Get to Know Your City
 - o Two times a year the City offers a comprehensive and exciting overview of Hampton City Government and an the 100's of opportunities to participate in our community. This introduction course is taught by City leaders and gives you a glimpse into how city government works for you. The free course is designed to inform and connect you to city services, tap unknown resources, connect with city leaders and your neighbors.

The Hampton Way – Our City Government & Citizen Engagement

City Manager, Mary Bunting and Terry O'Neill, Director of Community Development explain the guiding principles and vision of Hampton City Government.

Celebrating Diversity

John Johnson, Director of the City's Unity Commission explores prospective and lenses of our community and facilitates an exhilarating dialogue with class participants.

The Intricacies of Creating a Green Hampton

Public Works Director, Tony Reyes, will lead the discussion about the infrastructure of Hampton and how Trash, Roads and Environmental Management work together to create a sustainable GREEN City.

A Safe City is a Happy City

Meet the men and women who protect our City and how learn how Hampton's Fire and Police Divisions work together to make Hampton one of the safest cities in our region.

Neighborhoods, Places we Proudly Call Home

Hampton's neighborhoods are the Heart of Hampton and serve as a majority of our tax revenue. Learn all the ways in which Hampton works with citizens, allocates resources, and coordinates the many facets of healthy neighborhoods.

Hampton Youth, Shaping Hampton and the World

The Superintendent of Schools Linda Shifflett hosts this session along with all of the City divisions dedicated to the education and leadership development of Hampton's youth.

Hampton ROCKS! Wrapping up the College is this captivating tour that leads you through Hampton in a way you have never seen covering history, recreation, tourism and a glimpse of Hampton's future.

Registration Open for Fall Course (Thursdays, Sept. 13 - Oct. 18 & Sat., Oct. 20, 630-830pm)

For more information call 311 (727-8311 from cell)